IMPORTANT NOTICE

PROPOSED ADOPTION OF RULE FOR THE EVALUATION AND DESIGNATION OF SPECIAL COMMUNITIES (REGLAMENTO PARA LA EVALUACIÓN Y DESIGNACIÓN DE COMUNIDADES ESPECIALES)

In accordance with the powers and faculties conferred by Act No. 1, approved on March 1, 2001, as amended, known as the Integral Development of the Special Communities Act of Puerto Rico, the Office of the General Coordinator for the Socioeconomic Financing and Self Management proposes the adoption of "Rule for the Evaluation and Designation of Special Communities".

Said Rule shall be adopted within the purpose of guiding uniformly, information compilation processes, assessment and consults needed to support the formulation of recommendations and designation of Special Communities. The Office is developing a Rule, which will be approved according to the existing rule of law.

The proposed Rule will be available for public review at OFSA headquarters located at 1208 Roosevelt Ave., San Juan, PR 00920. On weekdays, the public may attend the office between the hours of operation from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm beginning January 7th, 2016. Also, you can access the proposed Rule through our website www.ofsa.pr.gov.

The public is invited to submit in writing to the above address or by e-mail to ofsapr@ofsa.pr.gov, comments or recommendations within thirty (30) days following the publication of this Notice. Also, the public may request, in writing, an oral hearing on the proposed rule.
